Peter Waite

(1834-1922)

Scottish Associations of SA Website: www.scotasa.com.au

Peter Waite

Peter Waite was born in Kirkcaldy, Scotland in 1834, the third son of James and Elizabeth Waite. His father died in the same year leaving his mother to carry on the modest family farm, Pitcairn, and raise their children, James (5), David (3), and Peter (5 months). Peter undertook an apprenticeship in ironmongery, and worked in Edinburgh and Aberdeen.

In 1859 Peter decided to join his brothers who had migrated to the Colony of South Australia. At the time he had been engaged to Matilda Methuen and she agreed to wait until he was in a position to send for her.

On arrival in Adelaide in 1859 Peter joined his brother James at 'Pandappa', a pastoral property near Terowie in the north east of South Australia. Peter quickly adapted to the harsh conditions and in 1862 Thomas Elder offered him the lease of a nearby property, 'Paratoo'. When James Waite was drowned in 1863, while crossing a flooded creek on horseback, Peter took over both stations.

By 1864, Peter had established himself as a pastoralist and property manager, and the 'Paratoo' homestead had been made comfortable. He was now in a position to send for his fiancée, Matilda. She sailed for South Australia on the maiden voyage of the 'City of Adelaide' and their marriage took place at Robert Barr Smith's home at Woodville in November 1864. Together they had 8 children.

He gained immense wealth from pastoral enterprises and partnership in Elder Smith & Co. He was Chairman of Directors for nearly 40 years. He gave 10,000 pounds ($1.25M) to establish an Officers Provident Fund.

Over his lifetime he gave generous financial support to the University of Adelaide and other needy causes. Following his death, he bequeathed his property Urrbrae House and surrounding land of 134 acres to the University of Adelaide, along with 65,000 pounds ($8M) to set up a trust fund which ultimately resulted in the foundation of Waite Agricultural Research Institute. He refused to accept a Knighthood saying that he was too old, but it would have gone against his lowland Scottish dislike of unnecessary show.

Our haggis is available as a 2kg Chieftain for parties and ceremonial duties or a more humble 750g Clansman for family get togethers.

We are also very proud of our slicing haggis which is more suited for frying than our traditional haggis, so it is great for breakfasts or even between two bits of bread.

For something different from your friendly butcher, why not try our delicious homemade pies?? Our mouthwatering steak and scotch pies sell out fast every week so be sure to get in quick. Or simply give us a call and place your order to avoid disappointment

The Pipes & Drums of The Royal Caledonian Society of South Australia

What started in 1894 is now commonly acknowledged as the most recognised Pipe Band in South Australia and the oldest civilian Pipe Band in the Southern Hemisphere.

Highlights for the band include performances at the international Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo's in 2001, 2007, 2011 and 2017 as well as the international Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo's in Australia in 2005, 2010 and 2016. They also performed at the Basel Tattoo in Switzerland in 2013.

In May 2016 they had the honour of being the only Pipe Band from Australia to be invited to perform with other International Pipe Bands at HRH the Queen's 90th Birthday celebrations.

The band actively fosters the Scottish Heritage by encouraging youth involvement in music. No prior musical knowledge is required. Tuition is offered in all facets, piping, snare, tenor, bass drums and drum major. Experienced players are always welcome.

If being in a Pipe Band interests you, please contact our Band Manager for details. rcspipeband@gmail.com Mobile 0417 867 976
