Sir Walter Watson Hughes – 1803 -1887

Sir Walter Watson Hughes (1803-1887), pastoralist, mine-owner and public benefactor, was born on 22 August 1803 at Pittenweem, Fife, Scotland, son of Thomas Hughes and his wife Eliza, née Anderson. He attended school in Crail and was apprenticed to a cooper, but soon went to sea and for some years was whaling in the Arctic regions. Hearing of good openings for enterprise in the East he voyaged in 1829 to Calcutta where he bought the brig Hero and traded in opium in the Indian and China seas.

In 1840 Hughes arrived in Adelaide where he settled to mercantile pursuits with Bunce & Thomson. On 21 September 1841 he married Sophia, daughter of the pastoralist and solicitor, James Henry Richman. In the financial crisis of 1840-43 Hughes turned to sheep farming near Macclesfield in the Adelaide Hills and by careful management salvaged enough to buy another flock which he took north. In 1851 he took up The Peak at Hoyleton in the mid-north and in 1854 with his brother-in-law, (Sir) John Duncan, and family leased the vast Wallaroo station.

From observations in northern Yorke Peninsula, Hughes expected that mineral deposits existed. The first discovery of copper on the Wallaroo property. Hughes became the largest shareholder in the Wallaroo Mine Co. when it was founded. Soon afterwards copper was found on Hughes's Moonta property. Several companies had been formed to work the discoveries. The Moonta mine had phenomenal success and first in Australia to pay over £1,000,000 in dividends.

Hughes also owned large properties north-east and north-west of Watervale and planted the first Riesling vines at Springvale where in the early 1860s he established Hughes Park station. He also bought Gum Creek near the Burra, its 896 square miles (2321 km²) carrying 60,500 sheep. In 1872 he bought the Lake Albert and Peninsula estate, a property later increased to more than 33,000 acres (13,355 ha). He also owned Torrens Park near Mitcham, which was later sold to Robert Barr Smith and then became Scotch College

In 1872 the council of the new Union College, which included Hughes's friend, Rev. James Lyall of the Flinders Street Presbyterian Church, approached him for a donation. His gift of £20,000 exceeded the council's expectations and it decided to use the money to found Adelaide University instead. Hughes's gift inspired others to make similar ones. He is often called the 'Father of the University'.

In 1864-70 Hughes was in England and returned there permanently in February 1873, living at Fan Court, Chertsey, Surrey. In 1880 he was knighted for his services to South Australia. After a long illness he died on 1 January 1887, predeceased by his wife in June 1885 without issue.

Hughes was one of the many Scotsmen whose public spirit and rise in influence were outstanding in the colony. Shrewd, gentle and kind, he had little formal education but shared the Scottish respect for learning. A window in his memory in the Flinders Street Presbyterian Church is now in Scots Church, Adelaide. In front of the university which his generosity brought into being is his statue presented by the Duncan family in 1906.

Black pudding
Fruit Pudding

Pork Chipolatas
Haggis

Square Sausages
Gammon

Our haggis is available as a 2kg Chieftain for parties and ceremonial duties or a more humble 750g Clansman for family get togethers.

We are also very proud of our slicing haggis which is more suited for frying than our traditional haggis, so it is great for breakfasts or even between two bits of bread.

For something different from your friendly butcher, why not try our delicious homemade pies?? Our mouthwatering steak and scotch pies sell out fast every week so be sure to get in quick. Or simply give us a call and place your order to avoid disappointment

The Pipes & Drums of The Royal Caledonian Society of South Australia

What started in 1894 is now commonly acknowledged as the most recognized Pipe Band in South Australia and the oldest civilian Pipe Band in the Southern Hemisphere.

Highlights for the band include performances at the international Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo's in 2001, 2007, 2011 and 2017 as well as the international Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo's in Australia in 2005, 2010 and 2016. They also performed at the Basel Tattoo in Switzerland in 2013.

In May 2016 they had the honour of being the only Pipe Band from Australia to be invited to perform with other International Pipe Bands at HM the Queen's 90th Birthday celebrations.

The band actively fosters the Scottish Heritage by encouraging youth involvement in music. No prior musical knowledge is required. Tuition is offered in all facets, piping, snare, tenor, bass drums and drum major. Experienced players are always welcome.

If being in a Pipe Band interests you, please contact our Band Manager for details via email rcspipeband@gmail.com or through details listed - page 27.

CLIPPER SHIP – CITY OF ADELAIDE

Discover the ship that changed South Australia and is one of Port Adelaide’s finest visitor attractions! The Clipper Ship “City of Adelaide”

The City of Adelaide is the world’s oldest surviving Clipper Ship and played a significant role in the colonial history of South Australia.

Constructed in 1864 to carry passengers to Adelaide, South Australia, she carried immigrants from places such as England, Scotland, Cornwall, Ireland, Germany and Scandinavia and made 23 return voyages. With a composite construction it was the pinnacle of sailing ship design. Only two survive today, the younger being the Cutty Sark Recovered from Scotland after a 14 year campaign to save the vessel, the City of Adelaide arrived in Adelaide in February 2014.

Mission

It is planned that the City of Adelaide will be the centrepiece of a Seaport Village, offering the perfect interactive environment for visitors to learn about Australian maritime and colonial history. The Village, in addition to maritime and colonial displays, will reflect the cultures of the passengers and crew.

Location: Dock Two, at the end of Honey Street, Port Adelaide

DUE TO COVID RESTRICTIONS THE TOURS BELOW ARE SUSPENDED BUT MAY BE LIFTED LATER IN THE YEAR WHEN CRISIS HAS EASED

The information Centre/ merchandise store is located at the entry to the ship.

It is open daily from 9am – 3pm (weather permitting).

Tours are conducted inside the ship daily at 10 am, 12 noon and 2 pm.

Cost $20 pp or $30 for families. (Bookings not required; other times by arrangement.)

Telephone: (08) 8337 5645

Suitable footwear required. Please note: NO tours will be held on days of extreme heat.
